

Madison County Emergency Management in partnership with the Indianapolis National Weather Service Office and Anderson University are offering the 2026 Storm Spotter Training Session

Presented by: the National Weather Service Tuesday March 10th, 2026

From 6:00pm to 8:00pm at York Performance Hall 1315 University Blvd Anderson, IN

This training is FREE and OPEN to the PUBLIC, First Responders, Amateur Radio Operators, Public Works, School Staff, Elected Officials and Business Owners. The training will show warning signs of severe weather, how to view radar images, severe weather formation, spotter information and case studies. EVERYONE IS WELCOME!!!